Headline:
Mostly dry for tonight. Turning cloudier through Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A largely dry and cloudy evening with a few spots of rain over eastern parts. Rain easing overnight with cloud cover breaking, with clear spells to follow for many areas. Remaining quite windy overnight, especially further west. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Monday:
Cornwall likely to see light rain and drizzle most of the day. Elsewhere looks mostly dry with plenty of early sunshine, increasing cloud later, along with the odd light shower. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Early morning rain on Tuesday slowly clearing eastwards, allowing for brighter skies later. Wednesday dry with warm sunny spells. Cloudier and breezier on Thursday, with a few showers possible.
